HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

THE LANDS OF THE ABOVE-NAMED ASSOCIATION are situated in San Francisco and are eligibly and most desirably located, adjoining the grounds purchased by the Presbyterian University Society, on which College buildings are to be at once erected. The site is less than thirty minutes ride from Montgomery street; lying just west or back of the lands of the South San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association and the Bay View Park, almost within a stone's throw of ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The tract will require little or no grading, there being scarcely a single lot on which it would not be safe to build without any change of grade. It commands a

Beautiful View of the Bay,

And its opposite shore, and has a soil of extreme richness. So great are the natural attractions of the spot that very many of the wealthy citizens of San Francisco have already purchased whole blocks in the same tract, and design building residences thereon.

The Rev. E. Thomas, D. D.,

Is President of the Association, Lester L. Robinson, formerly Vice President of the Sacramento Railroad Company, is the Treasurer, and Thomas B Lewis, formerly of Portland, Secretary.

Four lots, 25x120 feet each, constitute a share, costing $310—paid in monthly installments of $10 each, after the first payment of $20 has been made.

Maps and books giving full information of the workings of the Association can be obtained at the store of J. L PARRISH & CO.

It is an easy and a cheap way for young men to procure property which will in a few years make them independent.

Regulations relative to masters of distillers were issued to-day. Apple, grape and peach distillers are exempt.

The Labor Question—Miscellaneous

CHICAGO, May 1.—The working-men's demonstration to-day in honor of the commencement of the operation of the eight-hour law was the largest display ever witnessed in Chicago. The number in procession was estimated at from twenty to thirty thousand, representing nearly every department of labor. A great many workingmen held aloof in apprehension that the working of the law will not be advantageous to the laboring classes.

More than half the shops of all kinds in the city are closed, the employers refusing to accede to the demands of the workmen. Whatever the ultimate result may be, it seems probable that the immediate effect of the law will be mischief and trouble between employers and laborers.

Similar demonstrations occurred in most of the principal cities throughout the State, the workingmen marching with banners and devices expressing their determination that the law shall be observed. A large demonstration at St Louis nominated Gov. Oglesby, of Illinois, as the workingmen's candidate for President.

A terrible murder was committed near St. Paul, Minn., yesterday. A farmer named Hoyt chopped off his neighbor's head with an axe, and then attempted to murder his wife. The quarrel was about some cattle

The flood in Iowa has caused less damage than represented, but more loss of life. Thirty-eight victims are already known. The damage to railroads has been repaired. Trains run through to Boston.

NEW ORLEANS, May 1.—Parties from the Mexican borders report that Matamoras was besieged for a few days by Canales, who was en-route for Tampico.

It was believed that Cortinas would bring his army from the north, to aid in expelling Gen. Berriozabal from the gubernatorial chair of the State of Tamalipas, and this indicates that Ortega is still alive and ambitious to become President of Mexico and that he will issue his first proclamation from Her[illegible] City.

Troubles under the Eight Hour Law.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Great excitement prevails in the city to-day. A mob of 500 eight hour men have been endeavoring by violence to prevent workmen in various lumber yards, railroad shops and other manufacturing establishments from going to work under the ten hour system. The mob raided throughout the western division of the city early this morning, summarily closing shops, mills, &c., and ejecting the men who were about going to work. The police encountered the mob but were to weak to disperse them, but finally prevented the demolition of the Fort Wayne railroad freight house. The police concentrated in force in various parts of the city to-night ready for action at a moment's emergency It is not probable any violence or demonstration will be attempted to-night, though the rioters went off threatening further violence.

NEW YORK, May 2.—King's surveying party consists of Gardiner H Custer and F. A. Clark, topographical assistants, J G Havne and S. F. Emmons, geological assistants, W. W. NEW YORK, May 2.—The Persia, with Liverpool dates to the 21st has arrived.

The London Times of the 19th says the impression prevails that a money crisis is imminent. Every adverse rumor from Berlin or Paris causes a fresh panic. Basis of the Russian Cession.

The following is the memorial from the Legislature of Washington Territory which is said to be the suggestion which first prompted the State Department to commence negotiations for the purchase of Russian America. A small request has been largely answered, as more has been acquired than was asked for in the original petition:

To his Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States: Your memorialists, the Legislative Assembly of Washington Territory, beg leave to show that abundance of codfish, halibut and salmon of excellent quality have been found along the shores of the Russian possessions. Your memorialists respectfully request your Excellency to obtain such rights and privileges of the Government of Russia as will enable our fishing vessels to visit the ports and harbors of its possessions, to the end that fuel, water and provisions may be easily obtained; that our sick and disabled fishermen may obtain sanitary assistance, together with the privilege of curing fish and repairing vessels in need of repairs. Your memorialists further request that the Treasury Department be instructed to forward to the Collector of Customs of this (Puget Sound) district, such fishing licenses, abstract journals and log books as will enable our hardy fishermen to obtain the bounties now provided and paid to the fishermen of the Atlantic States. Your memorialists finally pray your Excellency to supply such ships as may be spared from the Pacific naval fleet to explore and survey the fishing banks known to navigators to exist along the Pacific coast from the Cortes Banks to Behring Straits; and, as in duty bound, your memorialists will ever pray, etc.

THE NEGRO VOTE IN VIRGINIA.—The extraordinary efforts which the Virginia chivalry are making to secure the negro vote has drawn the following from the New Nation, the Radical organ at Richmond. It is an appeal addressed to the colored people:

> Let every man set his face as a flint against the intrigues and wire-working of rebels, who have culminated them without measure or stint They will talk with you, and, if need be, sleep with you to get your votes, and swear you are the best bedfellows in the world. If you vote with secesh, when the voting is over and the secesh get the power, you may look out for secesh fruit. The whipping post, the jail, the penitentiary, the chain gang, high rents and low prices and vagrant laws

Theodore Tilton, who has been traveling over the West on a lecturing tour, concludes a letter in the Independent as follows:

> One thing more. I am sometimes told by friendly critics at home that I draw my pictures in over colors. No. I endeavor always to understate, rather than overstate, my admiration of the West. It is a majestic region. Its people belong to the nobility of mankind. Its prospective growth is beyond calculation. Its soul is of fire. Its ambition is to rule the land. Its opportunity is not far in the future. Its triumph, when it comes, will be complete. The West is to be the dictator of the Republic.

FROM OWYHEE

GEN. CROOK'S WHEREABOUTS.

The General has his present headquarters just to the east of Warner Lake, and it is his purpose to continue in that vicinity as being right in the heart of an Indian country with more than the common accommodations found in sage brush localities. He has not gone to Boise, as reported, nor has he any such intentions. If he visits that superfluous post, some unforeseen necessity compels the trip. By a most severe and active winter campaign, the General has obtained a knowledge of the country in which the Indian has his haunts, and finds his present position a valuable base. About forty miles to the southwest is Goose Lake, and Malheur Lake lies only a few miles further in the same direction; and about sixty miles east in Stein's mountain, a favorite resort of the savages. In a direct line bearing south of west, General Crook's present headquarters is one hundred and sixty-five miles from Silver—probably over two hundred by traveled routes. On the night of March 23d, while on a scout to Harney Lake, the command was encamped on Dunder and Blixen c[illegible], and in the night the Indians stampeded the stock and succeeded in getting away with most of the animals belonging to Captain Myers' company, but enough were saved to carry all the supplies and property back to camp. The Indians numbered about thirty, and drove the stock up a steep mountain, and there, after a council being held, divided the booty and themselves in parties of three and four and dispersed in different directions. The usual guard was out that night, but the suddenness of the stampede was such that ere the camp could be aroused the thieves were beating a hasty departure after the frighted stock. Previous to the flight, arrows had been shot into the herd, but the silence of the shots made them unobserved. The Boise Indians, who have rendered most valuable aid all winter, at once recognized the situation and rushed forward and saved many head of stock.

"FRIENDLY INDIANS."

We learn from parties living on Catharine Creek that the Bruneau Indians are all at Boise City or vicinity, in accordance with the direction of the Governor. According to that, no Indian found south of Snake river should be looked upon as "friendly," so far as the Bruneau arrangement is concerned. This calls to mind what a prospector told us several weeks ago. He was operating in the foothills between Sinker and Reynolds' Creek, and jumped up a male Indian, armed, but having "the drop" on Mr. Lo, the latter made no show of hostility. The savage claimed to be a "good" Bruneau, in the occupation of hunting wild game; with that the prospector let him go. Now, at that time this "good" Indian should have been at Boise. A few days after this meeting the stage attack and murdering took place. The Indians committing that devilry were afoot so was the one to which we allude. Is it an unjust conclusion to say that the "good" Bruneau proceeded a mile or two further west and took a hand in that affair? Loose Indians seen anywhere south of the Boise river, even, should be called to account from this on.

MINING ITEMS.

We noted last week the prospects of the New York ledge. Since that time the work has disclosed the ledge to a greater depth, and it has increased in size and richness. The New York shows very flattering, and we are assured cannot be tied up by litigation. It was among the earliest locations on War Eagle, by A. J. Sands and others.

The Oro Fino and Morning Star Mining Company and the Sands Company have completed a contract of consolidation for mining purposes on the Oro Fino mine. During next week some preliminary labor will be done about the works, so as to have everything in order to put on a force of miners to take out ore by May 1st.

CHICO MAIL.

A letter just received from the P. O. Department at W[illegible] informs the Ruby City Post[illegible] that the [illegible] contract f[illegible] [illegible] Italian crowd has been discontinued from Chico to B[illegible] City; and that a contract from Chico to Ruby has been let to a Chico man named F. P. Benjamin. The service is to be weekly and to commence as soon as possible. The Ruby Postmaster is instructed to turn over the mails for that route when called for by the new contractor. We know nothing of the time allowed nor of Mr. B.'s ability or disposition to make it.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY IN FLINT.

On last Wednesday night at half-past 10 o'clock Dan McCarty shot Barney Hea[illegible]—and the latter died from the effects at nine A. M., Thursday. The former gave himself up and had a hearing before Justice King, which resulted in his commitment to the County Jail for trial at the District Court. The cause of the quarrel which induced the shooting, is not clearly reported, and we have not heard the evidence adduced on the examination. McCarty was under the maddening influence of whisky—and this ca[illegible] of man has one—if not two—more victims. We are informed that Mr. Heery was not addicted to the use of any liquors. The occurrence took place in Twilight Gulch and the dispute arose about the sinking of a shaft—particulars variously reported.

POMPEY THE GREAT.—He was neither a bad nor an incapable man, but a man thoroughly ordinary, created by nature to be a good sergeant, called by circumstances to be a General and statesman. An intelligent, brave and experienced, thoroughly excellent soldier, he was still, even in his military capacity, without trace of any higher gifts. It was characteristic of him as a General, as well as in other respects, to set to work with a caution bordering on timidity, and if possible, to give the decisive blow only where he had established an immense superiority over his opponent. * * * In the tumult of battle he faced the enemy fearlessly; in civil life, he was a shy man, whose cheek flushed on the slightest occasion; he spoke in public not without embarrassment, and generally was angular, stiff and awkward in intercourse. For nothing was he less qualified than for a statesman. Uncertain as to his aims, unskillful in the choice of his means, alike in little and great matters, short sighted and helpless, he was wont to conceal his irresolution and indecision under a solemn silence, and when he thought to play a subtle game, simply to deceive himself with the belief that he was deceiving others.—Mommsen's Rome.

The London correspondent of the Round Table has received from a Mr. George Harvey, a bookseller doing business in the great metropolis, a circular form requesting him to insert his name as a subscriber to a new work entitled, "Was Washington Born in England?" These eccentricities of literature are becoming a nuisance. What with pamphlets proving Napoleon Bonaparte to have been a myth, and bulky volumes to prove that Shakespeare never wrote his own plays, and extracts from scandalous old books going to show that Pocahontas was a disreputable young squaw, who turned somersaults in public places with a pack of dirty boys, we are beginning to lose all faith in history and tradition. Better sum up the whole current of objectless doubt in one exhaustive essay and call it, "Did Anything Ever Happen?" "Has Anybody Ever Been?"

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1867.

The McCall-McDowell Case.

The decision of Judge Deady in the McCall-McDowell case, of which mention was made in the telegraphic dispatches some days ago, is published in full in the San Francisco papers. It is quite lengthy, and we may not be able to find room for it the OREGONIAN, though on account of its ability and the interest that attaches to it, we should be glad to do so. McCall was arrested in April, 1865, by order of General McDowell, for publicly rejoicing over the assassination of President Lincoln. Captain Douglas made the arrest. McCall was kept in custody at Fort Alcatraz for a short time, and then discharged. At the late term of the United States Circuit Court in San Francisco he brought action for heavy damages against Gen. McDowell and Captain Douglas. The case was tried without a jury. Judge Deady held that as Capt. Douglas had acted under the immediate orders of his superior, he was protected against an action for damages, and that the plaintiff must proceed against Gen. McDowell alone. The case was heard, and the Court awarded McCall damages in the sum of $635. These damages were intended to be merely compensatory; and in rendering the judgment the Court took into consideration the number of days the plaintiff was under arrest, with his loss of time and expenses. The Judge in his opinion says that the language of McCall which provoked his arrest was "gross and incendiary," and "well calculated at that moment of intense public feeling and anxiety to have brought harm upon himself and trouble to the community." Yet the speaking of the words "was not technically a crime."

The defense maintained that the act of Congress of March, 1863, authorizing the President to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and declaring that any order by the President for arrest and imprisonment in the cases specified, should be a sufficient defense to any action for prosecution, together with the act of May, 1866, to indemnify all persons for any act done during the rebellion under the order of the President or the Secretary of War, afforded Gen. McDowell complete defense against the prosecution. The plaintiff asserted that these acts of Congress were unconstitutional and void, and therefore that they afforded no defense. The Court held that Congress has power to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus and in an elaborate argument showed that the act of March, 1863, was constitutional and valid. The President was entrusted with the power to enforce this act, and any order from him within its purview would, by the terms of the act, have been a good and sufficient defense to an action. But McCall was not arrested by an order from the President, but solely on the authority of General McDowell. The Court therefore held that his arrest and imprisonment did not come within the purview of the act of March, 1863, and that the proceeding was consequently without the sanction of law. McDowell's action was not taken in obedience to the order of a superior, and therefore he could not plead in defense the act of Congress. "The power of arbitrary arrest," we quote from the opinion,—"is a very dangerous one. In the hands of improper persons it would be liable to great abuse. If every officer throughout the United States during the suspension of the habeas corpus, is authorized to arrest and imprison whom he will, (as aiders and abettors) without further orders from the President or those to whom he has specially committed such authority, the state of things that would follow can better be imagined than described."

This theory, is the ground on which the opinion [illegible] Judge Deady does not question the [illegible] of the act of 1863 suspending [illegible] McCall [illegible] on the contrary he [illegible] be clearly constitutional. In ordering the arrest of McCall, Gen. McDowell acted on his own responsibility and not under the orders of a superior, therefore, under the Judge's construction of the law, he was liable for his act.

To protect the liberty of the citizen, and at the same time to take due care for the public safety, is, in times of great commotion, like those through which we have lately passed, a matter of extreme difficulty for persons who are entrusted with the civil or military administration. It is clear, to everybody now that the arrest of McCall in California, or of Mulkey in Oregon, for their fiendish expressions of exultation on the occasion of the assassination of President Lincoln, was not indispensably necessary for the public safety; yet when those arrests were made this fact was not known. The people were not aware of the extent of the danger, and in view of what had transpired it was natural for them to take alarm when men in all parts of the country were heard shouting in exultation because the head of the Government had been struck down by the hand of an assassin. That such persons should, in some instances, have been arrested, is not a matter of surprise. Candid men must allow that under all the circumstances of that period of suspense, of doubt, of calamity, of sorrow and of righteous anger, the authorities showed singular leniency toward those, who were so fiendishly malignant and obviously disloyal. But a Court cannot, judicially, consider these things. It finds that utterances like those which McCall was proven to have made, however gross they may be in themselves, or however offensive they may be to a right thinking community, do not, as the law now stands, constitute a crime; therefore the person using such language is not liable to arrest or to legal punishment. That an officer who simply arrests such a person under such circumstances, without doing him other injury, ought to be protected against a subsequent action for damages, most people would think proper and just, but a Court of law has not this option. Judge Deady evidently feels the weight of considerations like the above, as he remarks in his closing paragraph: "Congress may relieve a meritorious officer against a loss incurred in the discharge of his duty to the public; but in this tribunal, whose only function is to administer the law, the defendant must be held liable for the legal consequences of his act."

In the recent order issued by Gen. Sickles on taking command at Charleston he enjoined implicit obedience to the reconstruction laws, and asked the aid of citizens in his efforts to execute those laws and preserve the peace. He declared that "the civil government now existing in North Carolina and South Carolina is provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or persede the same."

Longfellow's translation of Dante will shortly be published. It will appear in three volumes, one for each of the three parts, the Inferno, the Purgatorio and the Paradiso. Each volume will contain about one hundred and fifty pages of notes, etc. Mr. Longfellow has had this great work under hand since 1839.

The official table of the census of the Sandwich Islands for 1866 have been published. The population of all the islands is 62,959. In 1860 the population was 69,800. The tables show that the native population has decreased more than nine thousand in six years.

In the list of passengers who left New York by the steamer of the 20th of April, for the Pacific coast, we observe the names of both the Oregon Senators.

The number of the French who evacuated Mexico was something above 30,000. It is computed that fully this number have left their bones on Mexican soil.

REMOVALS IN LOUISIANA.—The following order was promulgated from Gen. Sheridan's headquarters at New Orleans on the 27th of March:

Andrew S. Herron, Attorney General of the State of Louisiana; John T. Monroe, Mayor of New Orleans, and Edmund Abell, Judge of the First District Court of the city of New Orleans, are hereby removed from their respective offices from twelve M. to-day.

The following appointments are made to take effect from the same date: B. L. Lynch, to be Attorney General of the State of Louisiana; Edward Heath to be Mayor of New Orleans, and W. W. Howe to be Judge of the First District Court of New Orleans.

Each person removed will turn over all books, papers, records, etc., pertaining to his office to the one appointed thereto. The authority of the latter will be respected and enforced.

MR. FRARY, of this city, will continue to receive and forward names to the ASTORIA LOT SALE for a few days longer. The distribution will come off on the 15th.

MRS LYDIA SEWARD, 10 Vandam street, New York, says of the work done on the Grover & Baker Machine: "I think it has a superiority in durability. From my examining the work on other machines, I know that the threads in other machines will draw out when the work is washed. This is not so in the Grover & Baker. The work stitch is more elastic in the Grover & Baker. The work requires no adjustment of the ends after it leaves the machine. * * * I have often gone from one kind of work to another without altering the machine at all." Wm. Courier & Co., agents, 103 Market street, Portland.

PERFECTLY SATISFIED.—Every one that visits BUCHTEL'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, comes away perfectly satisfied with their bargains. The highest style of the art is reached in the beautiful Sun Pearls and Photographs.

THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE DIFferent Steamship Companies on this coast will make the O., O. & M. S. S. Co. the most extensive Company on the coast.

Since KOHN & FISHEL have removed to the brick building formerly occupied by Weil Bros., No. 7 Front street, it is considered that they have the most extensive stock of CLOTHING and GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS in the State, of which every person can convince himself by calling at their store, No. 91 Front street, and be satisfied that they decidedly sell better goods for less money than any other house in the city. Kohn & Fishel also have a large stock of Ladies' Goods on hand, which they are selling off at extremely low prices

LOUIS A. GARNETT..........President and Manager.
JOHN HEWSTON, JR.....Chemist and Superintendent.

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent, for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

CHARGES AT U. S. BRANCH MINT.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.
For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN is published this morning It contains the latest telegraphic news from the East and California—a selection of the best articles appearing in THE DAILY OREGONIAN —full and reliable news from the Mines, and the most copious commercial information published by any paper in the State

The average amount of reading matter in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is double that published by any other journal in Oregon; and in the particular of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable more especially in matters pertaining to Oregon interests

☞ Single copies 12½ cents, or $3 00 per year to any part of the United States, or British Columbia

CALIFORNIA AND OREGON CABINET WOODS —A late issue of the San Francisco Bulletin had the following on the value of California and Oregon woods for cabinet work

The great value of the California laurel and Oregon maple as fine cabinet woods is gradually becoming known to our people. Until within a few years it has been the practice to import the finer varieties of wood used in the manufacture of counters, furniture doors pannels etc The total value of the black walnut rosewood, satin wood, mahogany and cedar imported for the use of manufacturers in this city annually amounted to hundreds of thousands of dollars, while we had woods native to this State and Oregon of finer quality that unknown were only used for firewood. The strong and persistent efforts of John D Boyd of this city have now however attracted attention to the superior qualities of our native laurel and Oregon maple, and comparatively large quantities of each kind of wood are now being used By Mr Boyd it was discovered that the laurel could be made to imitate black walnut or Brazilian rosewood mahogany and satin wood that in richness of coloring and fineness of grain were unsurpassed by the finest specimens of the true woods The Oregon maple was also susceptible of similar changes only to a less degree. the specimens of both being so perfect as to deceive some of the most competent judges. Like all discoveries, the public have had to be convinced of the merits of the native woods but at last this has been achieved * * * When the cheapness of our native wood is considered, it is quite a marvel that their use is not more extensive, black walnut costing $300 per 1 000 feet while laurel or Oregon maple which are superior woods for fine grain and beauty can be bought for $50 per 1,000 feet A new feature that our native woods possess is the admitting of carving when by coloring the back ground or back the native color stands in relief like an other wood. This practice has been invented by Mr B who makes Billiard table legs and piano legs of solid laurel or maple, and by staining and polishing the solid portion, leaves the carved work in its natural color in bright relief, seemingly of another variety of wood A splendid sample leg is to be sent to the Paris Exposition in care of A Kohler, who also takes an assortment of panel slabs of laurel which Professor Blake neglected to take with him. It is greatly to be desired that the native woods of this State and Oregon shall come into use for fine cabinet making purposes, and it will prove of vast benefit to the State by preventing in part, the great annual drain of money for merchandise and products which, more than anything else, prevents the success of home industries.

VANCOUVER ITEMS —The following items are from the Vancouver Register Deserted—two soldiers belonging respectively to the 8th Cavalry and 23d Infantry, while being under charge of a sentinel They were in custody for some military offense heavily ironed and engaged at work with other prisoners near the cemetery grounds They requested and obtained permission to go to the rear, which they did accompanied by an armed sentinel since which time nothing has been heard of the prisoners or the sentinel. It is generally suspected that the sentinel has been foully dealt with, some parties having reported that blood, and signs of a struggle were found in the vicinity A vigilant search has been instituted but without any results.—Mr Louis Love informs us that a man living on the opposite side of the river was killed by a wagon running over him some time last week We did not learn the name of the individual —A subscription is being circulated to build a new parsonage for the M E Church in this place Our citizens subscribe quite liberally, and we have no doubt but what the effort will succeed.—The several companies of the Fire Department have elected three members each to the Board of Delegates The Board will be composed of the following persons From Vancouver No 1 R J Moore, Dan Leahy H. G Struve from Gen Allen No. 3, Geo T Hodges, J Eddings, P Eckley From Vigilance H & L. No. 1, H Cochran Capt. Baker, C. F Short The first regular meeting of the Board will be held on the 2d Monday in May at the rooms of Gen Allen No 3 There is quite an excitement over the election of Chief Engineer and Assistants, which takes place on Monday next Vancouver No 1 has unanimously placed in the field as candidates the following persons W H Troup for Chief Engineer, J D Healy 1st Assistant H C Morse 2d Assistant—all of them members of that company, General Allen No. 3 has ratified the nomination made by Vigilance H & L. No 1 of H Cochran for Chief Engineer, and has nominated J Castle and Chas Bowling for Assistants. Mr. G W Brady, of Gen. Allen No. 3, has his posters out as an independent candidate for Chief Engineer The polls will be opened at the house of Vancouver No 1, on Monday next at two P M, and will be under the supervision of Capt. Baker, Capt Eckles and H G Struve, who were appointed as judges of election by the Common Council at their last meeting The total number of active firemen enrolled is 133, which number is apportioned as follows Vancouver No. 1 has 4? bers; Gen Allen No 3 has 60, and the H. & L Co. has 27 members.

COMPLIMENTARY —The San Francisco Bulletin of the 29th ult, has the following

The members of the legal profession admitted to practice before the United States Courts in this city, met yesterday morning and passed the preamble and resolution subjoined which sufficiently explain their object and intent. Hon. Thompson Campbell was Chairman, and Geo C Whitney Secretary of the meeting. The resolutions were framed by a Committee composed of Delos Lake U S. District Attorney Cutler McAllister and Geo. F Sharp Esquires. They were presented in open Court by Judge Alexander Campbell, with remarks pertinent to the occasion. Preamble and resolutions are as follows:

WHEREAS, The Hon M P Deady, United States District Judge for the District of Oregon has by the allotment of the United States Supreme Court, presided over the United States Circuit Court for the District of California during the present term and for the first time been brought into contact with the members of the California Bar; Now therefore, be it

Resolved, That upon Judge Deady s departure from among us to return to his own District, the members of the bar of California desire to express their thanks to him for the cheerfulness and readiness which he has exhibited in the disposal of a large number of important cases, and that they must bear testimony to the judicial courtesy ability and learning with which he has performed his judicial duties and has won for himself the respect, esteem and confidence not only of ourselves but of the public.

His Honor responded as follows

Gentlemen, I am a man of but few words in the matter of compliments I can only say that I appreciate the testimonial which you present me, and that the few weeks spent in this city in official duties, both in and out of Court, have been among the pleasantest of my life I tender you my sincere thanks, and hope you may long live, and that we may meet again

The Judge will return to Oregon, having taken passage on the steamship Montana which sails this day for Portland.

TO BE SOLD AT AUCTION —The small wooden building lately occupied by the Bank of British Columbia, is to be sold to-day at auction by Mr Richardson The building was erected in 1853 or 1854 and has been most of the time since, occupied by moneyed institutions Adams & Co.'s Express office was for some time in it, and then Wells, Fargo & Co occupied it Since they left it, the house has been a part of the time an assay office, and later, a bank Should the history of Portland institutions ever be written this building will cut no mean or obscure figure in it.

THE FIRE ALARM LAST EVENING —The alarm of fire last evening was caused by a mistake of some of the members of No 3 Some of No 2's boys ran their hose carriage out for the purpose of trying a new hydrant at the corner of North First and D streets Seeing them run, a member of No 3, supposing there was a fire down there, ran to the engine house and rang an alarm

GONE EAST —Capt J R. Kelley, late commander of the Montana, with his family started east by the America on the 27th ult having been sent to take command of one of the opposition steamers in the trade between San Francisco and Panama. AN ANTIDOTE FOR POISON.

THE PAIN KILLER.—Rev T Allen, writing from Tavoy, Burmah, says: "Within the past four years I have used and disposed of about five hundred bottles, but am now out Please send me a fresh supply as soon as you can—say two hundred bottles I dare not be without it myself, and there are endless calls for it, both by Burmans and Karens I always take it with me into the jungles, and have frequent occasion to use it both on myself and others One night, while sleeping in an open Zayats, I was awoke by a most excruciating pain in my foot On examination, I found I had been bitten by a centipede I immediately applied the Pain Killer, and found instant relief. In less than an hour I was again asleep"

Rev Mr Hibbard, writing from Burmah to his father, says: "I have used Davis' Pain Killer for coughs, colds, summer complaints, burns, and for the sting of scorpions, with uniform success. We always keep it where we can lay our hands on it in the dark, if need be" ap20dtc

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

[FROM A CORRESPONDENT OF THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK April 1, 1867.

With the waning ides of March, New York has closed its winter tournament, and everybody is sharpening lance for April work. The great carnival season for fun, frolic and foolery ended with last Saturday night. The business portion of society are packing boxes, and the fashionable portion are putting away furs for the summer campaign.

Since our last letter, the five great balls of the season, that annually present their nights of revelry, music, grace, beauty, magnificent toilets, frolic, humorous invention, good nature, picturesque freedom, and extensive bills,—have all come off at the Academy of Music. The order of succession has been the Charity Ball, the Opera Ball, the Sladerkranz, the Arion and the Purim, each one of which has been attended by thousands of citizens, of both sexes, and each have been pronounced the best of all the yearly successes which the members of the several societies have ever attended.

At all these entertainments, the dancers appear masked until midnight, or later, and it is remarkable for this metropolis that such large assemblages have not been marred by any altercation or personal difficulty.

The new Academy of Music, which has been rebuilt upon the site of the old Academy, that was utterly destroyed by fire on the night of the 22d of May, 1866, is the largest place of public amusement in the city. It has a seating capacity for 2,400 persons, and will accommodate, on a pinch and a jam, about 3,000. The ample stage is sixty feet deep, and with the entire parquet and orchestra floored over will present dancing room for a thousand nimble feet.

Of all the balls of the season, the Charity Ball is considered the most aristocratic and select, and on the occasion of its annual recurrence, the very elite of the Knickerbockers in the city pay their respects to Terpsichore, and exhibit their lace and diamonds to the admiring multitudes. The charitable character of the ball, the entire proceeds being a tribute to the little orphans, left desolate and dependant and who are cared for in the admirable institution known as the "Nursery and Child's Hospital," is a sufficient incentive for thawing out the aristocratic ice that stiffens the aboriginal upper ten of Gotham.

The Opera Ball is principally made up from the secondary formation of the geological strata of society. Diplomacy, art, literature and science are all well represented on this occasion. Beauty radiates from every fragrant spot. Nearly all the city notabilities are there—mayor, judges, aldermen, artists, authors, actors and critics, jostling each other, gracefully apologizing now and then for an unlucky step on some sweeping four-feet train of silk, satin or tulle. The costumes worn are as various as human taste and as brilliant as human vanity can devise.

By 10 o'clock the boxes "blaze with beauty and flash with diamonds;" the balcony is filled to repletion with dashing gay cavaliers attending their charming fair companions, and the vast area of floor bends beneath the weight of a thousand masqueraders who are beating time to the merry music of the band, eighty instruments, forty at each end, pour forth their inspiring strains, flooding the Academy from base to dome; the committee rush hither and thither, clearing a space in the centre of the floor for a waltz, mazourka, schottische or gallop, and the hum of a thousand whispers rise to the boxes, where sit the matrons twisting their fans, and watching Florinda or Phebe Jane or Polly Ann as some marked Italian Count whispers loving words in her ear, or some Cherokee Chief whirls her in the dance.

Among all the gay costumes we recognize a half dozen representatives from the Webfoot land; a mother and daughter and two other worthy dames of Portland or Salem whilom.

Take a stroll with us, readers, through the labyrinths of this vast amphitheatre of music and Houris! There are beside the merry crowd below, and the wearied crowd above, and the eating crowd in the supper rooms, a fourth set, essentially of the Bal d'Opera who are rambling up and down the handsome corridors, and on the broad stair cases, and occupying aisles and cozy nooks of innocent flirtations and jolly combats. Everybody does as he or she pleases, and everybody is content. There is everywhere the usual crush or glitter, sparkling diamonds and blanched pearls, music and flowers, long trains and short skirts, masks [illegible], tercilla and fellate [illegible] tortures seems to be the fa[illegible] of suffering endured in or[illegible] fashion must be [illegible] [illegible] and silver [illegible] red hair [illegible] [illegible] rats, mice [illegible] and omnivera [illegible] toilets of the [illegible] gorgeous in the [illegible] quantity [illegible] is enough of it [illegible] drawn up a little, and [illegible] quality, one might easily fancy himself in the tropics, if he was awakened from a dream in the Academy of Music for the first time.

The Liederkranz and the Arion annual masquerades are the two great sensations of the week, and are especially presided over by Prince Carnival, the patron of all masques. These time-honored associations, which during each winter hold their weekly convivial meetings, musical soirees and dances, and which annually celebrate the close of the season, by a grand Masquerade Ball, are rival societies, composed mostly of members from the better classes of intelligent and fun-loving Germans. The spirit of rivalry existing between these two societies has long been productive of the largest share of comicality, wit, satire, sarcasm, and a variety of side-splitting laughter and innocent folly, that pertains to the gay season of New York. The number of tickets for these annual carnivals are limited to the capacity of the halls, and are generally rated at $15 each to admit a gentleman and two ladies; so great is the demand among the faithful followers of his carnivalistic majesty, that the price sometimes runs to $25 or $30 for a single ticket. The annual balls of the Liederkranz and the Arion, can only be appreciated by being seen. Considered musically, they are as a song of a thousand tones; socially, they are as Joseph's coat of many colors; there is unity in endless variety, with melody pouring through all; viewed as a drama, they are a kaleidoscope of all dramatis personæ, a wilderness of artificial character and dumb show, where many vagaries of past ages hob-nob together—a carnival of colors and costumes.

We were at the Arion on Wednesday night last, and without estimating the number of headaches from too much admixture of Bordeaux, Cliquot, Rheinish wine, Weiss beer or Lager; and without exposing the quantity of heart-aches from illusions of love or too compressed corsets, we should say the Masquerade was composed of the following ingredients, to-wit: alabaster arms, admirable ankles, angels at unawares, airs ad libitum, bewitching belles of beauty, banquets and bouquets, bosoms like billows, Barbara Bashaws, Celestial cherubs, curious crinoline, Chinese crackers, crinkling calves, circus clowns, claw-hammer coats, curls and cotillions,—distinguished damsels, delicious Daughters of the Regiment, dazzling diamonds, double dominoes;—effulgent eyes, eager eves-droppers, elongated elbows, Europeans and Ethiopians, entrancing enigmas,—fairy feet, fancy fans, floods of flowers, flimsey fabrics, flaunting furbelows, feathers fantastic,—glaring gas-light, Gipsey girls, gauze and gossamer, gorgeous gnomes, gilded gaiters with brass heels;—hairy harlequins, Spanish Hidalgoes;—Italian brigands, Indian maidens;—jockey cap and feather, Jewels of jet;—kerchiefs and kaleidoscopes, kiss-me-quicks, knock kneed-knights,—laughing ladies, lounging lords, lisping lips "with eager joy parted";—merry-making maidens, humorous masks, harmonious motion, mellifluous music;—white-necked nuns, none-such neckties, —Odd-Fellows and 'od-carriors;—pretty pelisses tight as pea pods, Polish peasants, plumping pages, patent-leather policemen, paint, powder and pomatum;—queens and kings, queer quaker-esses;—raven ringlets, rosy lips, Red Riding Hoods, rapid revolutions, — silver spangles, sparkling saphires, slippered maids of Saragossa, sylph-like syrens, Sisters of Charity, swell and sweep and surge of scarlot silks and shining satins,—tinkling tambourines, tattling troubadoros, toweling toilets, trails of tulle,—unyoked ursulines, unctious Undines, unheard of uniforms; vari-colored velvets, victuals and vivands, —wonderful wigs, wasp like waists, woolly whiskers;—x-traordinary x-teriors, x-travagant x pense, x-posed x-tremeties;—Yankee youths, Yosemite waterfalls, Zantippo, Xerxes and Sozodont, etc., etc., etc.

Last comes the Purim Ball, to obtain an entre to which, one must be an Israelite or a friend of an Israelite indeed. This is among Carnival balls what the Kohinoor is among diamonds.

> "Look, how the floor of Heaven
> Is thick inlaid with pictures of bright gold
> There's not the smallest orb which thou behold'st
> But in his motion like an agel sings,
> Still quiring to the young eyed cherubims,
> Such harmony is in immortal souls."

The character of this Jewish masquerade differs entirely from any entertainment given in this city. What might be called the low comedy and boistrous fun element is entirely discarded, and instead, there reigns the merry quiet jest, the sparkling bon mot, and a free exercise of wit. In the manner of costumes, grotesque dresses are almost wholly ignored, and particular attention is given to personating characters which will af for the beautiful Hebrew maidens an opportunity to display elegance, richness and appropriateness combined.

At midnight nearly all the fancy dresses are removed, and an elegant variety of richest evening toilettes appear in the Academy of Music. The ladies are positively dazzling with diamonds, and rubies, and carbuncles, and emeralds and saphires, and all manner of precious stones.

> "The diamonds glancing on their forms,
> And diamonds gleaming in their eyes"

It might be thought extravagant for us to state what we are assured from unquestionable authority, that the gross value of diamonds and jewels worn by the Hebrew matrons and maidens at the last Purim ball will exceed a million of dollars.

Another feature of this entertainment is in the large attendance of Hebrew clergy or Rabbi, who, from the private boxes, look severely down upon the scene below, and doubtless indulge in reminiscences of the good old times "when Ahasuerus was King," or when the "Queen of Sheba came to see the glory of Solomon."

OREGON AND PACIFIC COAST MATTERS.

The California steamer last in from Panama, has brought to New York about 10,000 barrels of Pacific coast flour; among the lot some 2,000 barrels from Oregon City is reported.

The yellow fever is reported as prevailing to a considerable extent at Panama, and though the steamship company would naturally keep secret in the matter, some little alarm is felt in this city.

News from Paris reports the space allotted to the United States in the great Exposition as rapidly filling up. The space and the name for Oregon is along side Illinois, Michigan and Minnesota, and the ground is strewn with multitudes of unpacked cases, awaiting the workmen for opening.

Major General Rufus Ingalls, chief quartermaster for the army of the Potomac during nearly the whole term of the war, has been assigned to the duties of chief quartermaster at this city, and has taken up his residence here. Another of the army officers, who constituted one of the board of commissioners in Oregon upon the Indian war claims of 1865-6, Gen. A J Smith, commands the cavalry in the expedition under Major General Hancock, which has just started from Leavenworth, Kansas, for the country inhabited by the Sioux, Cheyenne and Arrapaho Indians. The expedition is composed of cavalry, infantry and a battery of artillery, and is not bound on a hostile errand further than punishing those inclined to be belligerent; the main object being to strengthen the friendship of all the peaceably disposed of those tribes.

Among the late Senate confirmations to office, observe the names of John Kelley, Register of the Land office at Roseburg; Leroy S. Dyer, Postmaster at Salem, James A. Pinney, Postmaster at Idaho City, and James Tufts, Territorial Secretary for Montana. The last named appointment appears to give general satisfaction to the many citizens of that Territory sojourning in New York, and sets adrift that political weathercock, Thomas Francis Meagher, who about two years ago went out to Montana with the violet cushions of a Senatorial seat in his eye. The ladies—God bless 'em—also come in for a share of official honors, the Senate at the same time confirming eight Postmistresses, one each in Texas, New York, Illinois, Florida, Georgia and Jefferson City, Mo., and two in Ohio. Among the rejected appointments appear the names of R. H. Lindsey, Postmaster for Boise City, H. B. Bennett Territorial Secretary for Colorado, and General Frank P. Blair, [illegible] ister to Austria.

Upon Broadway at the hat, cap and fur bazaar of Genin, the leader of the fashions man who paid $300 at auction for the first Jenny Lind ticket that was sold in America, may be found a new style of elegant fancy spring hat for ladies and misses, which he has named the "Idaho hat." A patent for it has been secured, and it is advertised "as absolutely storm-proof, the most superb novelty of the season in all varieties of cut and trimming, and delicately cheap."

All reports about the actual or prospective sale of the famous Poorman mine in Owyhee you may set down as a myth; no sale is likely to be made, but the mine will be vigorously worked during the coming season by the New York and Owyhee Co., who own three-quarters of the lode.

The rich ore brought here last winter is not yet all smelted and reduced, but enough has been done to demonstrate that the yield will be over $5,000 per ton for the eleven tons of the richer specimens have been selected from crushing—some sent to Paris, some in Washington, and some on exhibition in this city.

Your readers are doubtless already informed of the three suits commenced in New York against [illegible] Bradford, impleaded with Daniel E. [illegible] and the New York and Owyhee Co., for [illegible] division of the rights and [illegible] of the original locators on the [illegible] for $300,000; [illegible] and one by [illegible] has not yet been obtained [illegible] the State of New York [illegible] battle may have to be cut at [illegible] again.

"There is much dodging in all ball playing."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, 2 P M.,
May 3, 1867.

Gold was quoted in New York on the 1st inst,—the latest news we have—at 136 at the opening of the board and at 135½ at the close. Legal tenders in San Francisco on the same day, 74½ buying and 74¾ selling. The Alta California of the 27th, the latest date received, has the following in relation to the state of the Eastern money market.

The telegrams from the East are of a sort of panic in New York, consequent upon the decline of Cotton and United States Bonds in Europe. These are circumstances which greatly diminish the supply of bills, and may add, by the return of bonds from Europe, to the demand for remittance. The effect thus far has been to cause sterling to rise to 9½ and Gold to 141½. These items are both in favor of San Francisco, since sterling bills against silver and grain sell to better advantage and California's great staple, although unchanged in price as regards the markets of the world, is worth more for the discharge of Eastern debts. This is the disadvantage under which a people rest who tolerate paper money. At every fluctuation in credit which causes the money to depreciate the moment is seized by their creditors to pay them less coin than was due them. It took some time, when paper money was first circulated by Mr Chase, for the New York dealers to recover from the surprise they felt that paper money should effect a change in the current of exchange. Previous to that time, if money was due them in England and France, there was only one mode of realizing it, viz., to draw a bill on the debtor and sell it in New York for money. When paper money fell to a heavy discount, this system of exchange was reversed at once, John Bull no longer wrapt himself up in his own dignity and haughtily directed his creditors to draw upon him. He took time by the forelock, sent his sovereigns to his agent in New York, with directions to buy legal tender at the market rate and settle the account. He was infinitely disgusted with the "disloyalty" of the person who complained of this proceeding. The tendency of affairs now in New York seems to be nearly the same as last year. On this day, 1866, gold was 126. The same causes now in action sent it to 141½ May 25th, and 101½ June 18th, when it again began to decline.

Our local jobbing trade may be reported as about the same as last week. Oregon butter—no sale. Bacon—demand light and prices a little lower; stock increasing. Beans—in light request. Dried apples—light stock; demand moderate. Flour—no change in quotations. A telegram from the agent of Knapp, Burrell & Co dated New York, April 18th, to care Knapp & Grant, San Francisco, and received this morning per Montana, says "Imperial sells 50 cents per bbl over best California brands." A private letter from New York represent that Oregon flour is selling with the very first St. Louis brands, and that bakers are buying it to mix with Western flour. The favor with which it has been received gives assurance of a permanent market. The stock of wheat now on hand in California is represented as small and prices of both wheat and flour are not likely to decline. The chances are rather that they will remain fully up to, or higher than, the present figures.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 20th, ult says "Late telegrams from New York and Liverpool show an increasing demand for our flour in those markets. The shipment to New York via Panama continue to the full capacity of each departing steamer. Arrangements have also been made to ship about 1,500 bbls per America to morrow via San Juan del Sur at $3 50 per bbl in sks, the price now charged by the Panama route."

There is no change in groceries. Trade during the week has been moderate. Dealers are hopeful that the demand for the interior markets will very soon open.

There is so little doing in produce that it is impossible to quote with precise accuracy; there is no established price. Bacon, hams, shoulders and lard are tending to weaker figures. One lot of bacon, a good article, brought 11 cents, but this is no criterion.

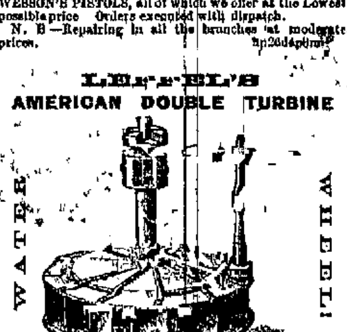
LEFFEL'S

AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, unequaled and unrivaled in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, more than forty being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

On account of the extraordinary demand, our stock of wheels is considerably reduced, and we are entirely out of several sizes, therefore parties contemplating using our wheel, to be certain of securing them in time, should give their order at least three months before they expect to get them, that we may be able to make them by the time needed.

We cheerfully refer to all using our wheels, and are assured that all will affirm that our wheels accomplish all and even more than we claim for them. Address

Fountain of Life!

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARrive when a new direction is imparted to its course. These epochs proceed from discovery of new facts which change the whole aspect of the science. The present is an epoch of this kind, and this Great Remedy now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based, is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood. The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts; it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance.

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything, from the days of Æsculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or equal the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier. Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world. No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING'S EVIL may have assumed, it can in no way be so surely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY'S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER. Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of this FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health. It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself. During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found a

☞ Dr. HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world and [illegible] the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made —provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured.

FOR REFERENCE:

I would refer you to L. L. Peck, of Portland, Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a powerful effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years.
